Welcome to the November 2005 edition of the Radio HF Internet Newsletter. I would like to welcome any new subscribers joining us this month. As usual, we have a selection of links to web sites which I hope you will find informative and entertaining.

No snow, so far, in the Montreal region, but it feels like it isn't that far off. It's amazing that the Christmas season is not that far off. For those in the U.S., you still have Thanksgiving Day to get through!

WEBSITE OF THE YEAR

Next month's Newsletter will mark the completion of our 7th year of publication. To mark the end of 2005, why not send along your choice of the "Website of the Year". It could be the one site you used the most, or perhaps the most creative, innovative or informative site you found throughout the year. Consider it your Christmas gift to the Radio HF Internet Newsletter subscribers. Please send it along to hfnewsletter@yahoo.com

Be sure to check out the Publicity Zone this month for information on a new, innovative product called CONNECT QUICK. I had the opportunity to meet the creator of this new product, Mr. Paul McMahon, K1PJM, of Vermont. I am working with Paul to introduce his product to clients across Canada. Be sure to check it out!

A number of events are featured in this month's Special Zone including U.S. Thanksgiving, Remembrance Day (Armistice or Veterans' Day in some countries), American Indian Heritage Month and UNESCO's World Television Day.

SPECIAL NOTICES RADIO HF GIFT CERTIFICATES

The 2006 ARRL Handbook and the 2006 Passport to World Band Radio have been received. All orders received to date have been shipped out. Thanks for your support. You still have time to order these or any other products and receive them in time for the holidays.

There are several new publications from ARRL and RSGB this month. Please check them out in the Publicity Zone.

Once again this year Radio HF gift certificates are available, in any denomination. They are an excellent idea for those of you who just aren't sure of which specific gift to buy for that radio hobbyist in the family. They can be used on any purchase at any time and they have no expiry date. Contact Radio HF for information on gift certificates.

THE MONTHLY SURVEY

LAST MONTH'S SURVEY

Last month's question was:

What is your favourite "bad", grade B film?

Only 12 responses to the survey, and believe it or not, there was one movie which received more than one vote! It was Invasion of the Body Snatchers, a film which was, more or less, a pre-cursor of the cloning phenomenon which would follow in the future.

Other nominated films included:
Killer Klowns from Outer Space
Tankgirl
Tremors
Radar Men from Outer Space
Hissssss
Night of the Living Dead
Attack of the Killer Tomatoes

Police Academy
The Swarm
King Kong vs. Godzilla

THIS MONTH'S SURVEY

Let's play armchair traveler for this month. Some of us have had the opportunity to visit different parts of the world in our lifetime; other may have a dream destination in mind. Our question this month is:

If you could leave home today to visit any city around the world, which city would it be and why?

Please send your response, by e-mail, to hfnewsletter@yahoo.com

THE COMMENTS ZONE

No comments this month.

Miscou Island is on the northern tip of New Brunswick, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. This is the report on a DXpedition to the site earlier this year.

MILITARY RADIO

http://www.militaryradio.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

This site is dedicated to those famous early vintage and classic radio communication systems developed by the United States beginning in the first half of the 20th century. These are the essential radios that our armed forces depended on for the defense of our country during WWI, WWII, and thereafter. Many aficionados collect, restore and preserve these remaining artifacts of US military radio equipment. We do this to help preserve the historical significance of that equipment for future generations.

THE CENTER FOR MEDIA AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS

http://www.cmpa.com/

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The Center's goal is to provide an empirical basis for ongoing debates over media fairness and impact through well-documented, timely, and readable studies of media content. CMPA's bi-monthly newsletter, Media Monitor, is a prime example of these analyses. Our scientific approach sets us apart from self appointed media "watchdog" groups, while our timeliness and outreach distinguishes us from traditional academic researchers.

THE CENTER FOR PUBLIC INTEGRITY

http://www.public-i.org

VIA Sheldon Harvey, Greenfield Park, Quebec

The Center for Public Integrity is a non-profit, non-partisan, tax-exempt organization that conducts investigative research and reporting on public policy issues in the United States and around the world.
The Center was founded in 1989 by Charles Lewis following a successful 11-year career in network television news. Through thorough, thoughtful and objective analyses, the Center hopes to serve as an honest broker of information and to inspire a better-informed citizenry to demand a higher level of accountability from its government and elected leaders.

NEW FROM R.S.G.B.
PRACTICAL WIRE ANTENNAS 2

-- Edited by Ian Poole, G3YWX
Based on the hugely popular Practical Wire Antennas by John Heys, G3BDQ this book is significantly expanded and fully revised for the 21st Century. Nearly doubling in size with even more practical, complete and easy to understand designs for a wide range of wire antennas, Practical Wire Antennas 2 contains just about every type of wire antenna imaginable including plenty of original designs that you simply won't find in other publications. You're sure to find one that is ideal for your own particular set of circumstances. Some will fit small urban gardens and others are best deployed by those lucky enough to have plenty of available space.
Theory is kept to a minimum throughout the book, and only a few formulas are given where they are necessary to allow the reader to calculate the lengths of various antennas. Practical Wire Antennas 2 has chapters covering feed lines, dipoles, antennas with tuned feeders, loop antennas, end-fed wires and verticals. The book also provides a wealth of information and 'know how' on the mechanics of antenna building and includes designs for ATUs for almost every type of antenna.
176 page, © 2005. Published by Radio Society of Great Britain (RSGB).
(ISBN: 1-905086-04-0) #9563 -- $31.95 Canadian

EXCLAMATION MARK'S B-MOVIE REVIEWS

http://exclamationmark.typepad.com/

VIA Yahoo Weekly Picks

Exclamation Mark has a soft spot for monster movies from the 50s. Mark reviews films like "The Brain from Planet Arous" and "Werewolf in a Girls' Dormitory" with the respect and acuity they deserve. Whether he's admiring the visceral textures of a giant slug monster, or appraising a police officer's performance as "pretty much par for the genre," Mark is an exacting critic. You'll find plenty of old faves like "Them!" and "Nosferatu" here. Don't miss Mark's personal film collection catalog, which features categories like "Mad Scientists/Doctors/People/Killers," "Circus Horrors," and "Gone into Space and Came Back Changed."

already knew that.

BODY WORLDS

http://www.bodyworlds.com/en/pages/home.asp

VIA David Moore, Morro Bay, California

The primary goal of BODY WORLDS and BODY WORLDS 2 is health education. On the one hand, 200 individual specimens are used to compare healthy and diseased organs, i.e., a healthy lung with that of a smoker, to emphasize the importance of a healthy life-style. On the other hand, 25 life-like posed whole-body plastinates illustrate where in our bodies these organs are positioned and what we are: naturally fragile in a mechanized world.
